

It is not appropriate that the satellite radio companies, such as XM Radio and Sirius, be restricted from carrying any material normally carried by the "TRADITIONAL" media.

It is especially repulsive if the reason for restricting weather, traffic, etc., is simply to protect the financial interests of the networks!!

Paul D. Zuelke